

Old Drug Store Under New Management

I have purchased the store formerly known as the Pioneer Drug Store and will carry a full and complete line of Drugs and Drug Sundries.

Your patronage solicited and assure you of prompt and courteous treatment at all times. Prescriptions carefully and accurately compounded.

PHONE NO. 390 GIVE US A CALL

J. P. MILLER, Druggist
Successor to PIONEER DRUG STORE

Local and Personal Mention

Where is the dog killer?

W. A. McGrew of Denver, is in the city.

Gen. Hall of Montoya, was here this week trading.

E. S. Hollingsworth of Rawling, Wyo., is here this week.

R. A. Ritter, of El Paso, registered at the Glen Rock.

H. Mills of Kansas City, was here Tuesday on business.

Earl Millsingle visited relatives at Montoya last Sunday.

Chas. H. Kohr was up from Montoya this week on business.

J. H. Cole and W. H. Clem, of Montoya, were here Tuesday.

Did you notice the ad. of T. A. Muirhead & Co., this week?

Arthur Adams of Dodge City, Kan., is here prospecting.

P. B. Correll, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was here on Wednesday.

Roy Welch and Benito Baen made a trip to Gallegos this week.

J. M. McDonald of Denver, was in town several days this week.

W. C. Hicks of Wadsworth, Mo., has purchased a farm near Jordan.

L. V. Gallegos, the father of N. V. Gallegos, is visiting in the city.

Charles Porter and Andy Michaelson were here Tuesday on business.

The ad. of Barnes & Rankin is a complete change this week. Read it.

J. R. McAlpine was here this week, being the first lay-off he has had for a month.

L. J. Mattocks, of Ft. Sumner, N. M., was here on business this week.

T. M. Hornsby and daughter, of Montoya, were here trading Tuesday.

A. D. Johann of Ober, was in town Tuesday visiting with old friends.

T. H. Coulter, of San Antonio, Texas, was here Wednesday of this week.

Judge Gomez was up this week to renew his saloon license at Montoya.

C. M. Moore and wife left Tuesday night for Portland, Ore., via Denver.

H. W. Fritz, circulation manager of the El Paso Herald, was here this week.

Mrs. A. W. West of Wagoner, was here Sunday on her way to Chaco.

H. Gilliland of New York, is here this week conducting business with pleasure.

Adam Long, who has been in Fort Davis, Ariz., has returned to his home near El Paso.

W. F. Buchanan and Reel Holloman are in El Paso and Silver City this week on business.

Pablo Gomez and son, Pedro, of Montoya, spent Tuesday night in Tucumcari on business.

Judge E. R. Wright, of Santa Fe, is here for today only, going from here to Santa Rosa.

N. V. Gallegos has completed a dam on his farm 2½ miles from town. He can now irrigate about 10 acres of fertile land.

M. H. Koch was called to Mosquero today on account of the death of some one, the particulars not being known at this time.

The latter part of last week the Majestic and a professional violinist who attracted much attention, as did their show this week.

Monday and Tuesday were such election days. Following Sunday, gave several of our citizens a vacation of three days in succession.

Rev. Hedgpeth has been assisting in a revival meeting at Montoya and was there last Sunday, hence, no services at his church here.

L. P. Sands, of Ottawa, Kansas, has entered with us and is connected with the J. P. Miller Drug Store. He came in last Sunday night.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will conduct a Market and Bazaar at the store of Wofford & White, Saturday, April 6th.

Miss Mianette Sandusky happened to the misfortune of having her arm badly sprained while playing with girl friends Wednesday afternoon.

Bon. R. A. Prentiss is in Santa Fe this week as a witness in some U. S. Land cases, taking with him some of the records as evidence.

J. W. Madevon, cashier of the Vaughn Savings and Trust Bank & Ill and P. S. Griggs of the First National Bank here is there in his stead.

Hostetter, the tailor, has moved to El Paso, where he goes into the tailoring business. He will likely open a tailoring establishment there, too.

H. Hamer, of Lewiston, Ark., an attorney, is here with a view of locating in Tucumcari.

Loren Anderson of the Bell Ranch was in town Wednesday and gave our office a pleasant call.

Commissioner W. B. Rector and family visited at the Kuhn residence in Montoya last Sunday.

H. B. Wood and T. K. White of Vega, Texas, were here this week and bought several cars of cattle.

Brevard Hawkins has entered as an apprentice in the Machine shops of the E. P. & S. W. Railroad.

Mr. Gallegos, of the Gallegos ranch is here with his family. He is a financial power in his vicinity.

Joe Hollbrook was up from Chaco Sunday. He is manager of the Bond & West store at that place.

L. P. Pretwell has moved his family to his farm south of Montoya. He works in the shops at Dalhart.

Miss Maude Arbogast, formerly maid at the Green Cafe, has moved on to her claim 40 miles from town.

The beautiful days cause the grass to put forth rapidly and the stock will soon be in the swim for good grazing.

Beautiful spring weather, the grass is coming fast and the prospects of a good crop for 1942 is most excellent.

Born—To C. L. McNamee and wife April 1st, 1942, a daughter. That is why Mr. McNamee wears such a smile.

Born—To Leon Jones and wife, April 2, a daughter. The little lady seems quite content with Tucumcari.

Ezra Hoss is improving from his recent stroke of paralysis. We hope he will continue until he is entirely well.

E. W. Wilkins, who has been visiting his brother near Chaco, came up Monday night on his way back to Colorado.

Isidore V. Gallegos, Jr., has returned home from Guthrie, Okla., where he graduated in Bookkeeping and type writing.

O. M. Anderson is here looking for a location for a colony from Texas, and seems favorably impressed with this section.

Inc. E. Furr is setting out fruit trees and other shrubbery on the property he recently purchased in the south part of town.

Miss Oseola Embanks, who has been in Oklahoma for sometime, has returned to resume her duties with the Tucumcari Hospital.

Switchman Snyder was clicked by a bullet this week but not seriously injured, although his nose was scared up some.

N. V. Gallegos has completed a dam on his farm 2½ miles from town. He can now irrigate about 10 acres of fertile land.

M. H. Koch was called to Mosquero today on account of the death of some one, the particulars not being known at this time.

The latter part of last week the Majestic and a professional violinist who attracted much attention, as did their show this week.

Monday and Tuesday were such election days. Following Sunday, gave several of our citizens a vacation of three days in succession.

Rev. Hedgpeth has been assisting in a revival meeting at Montoya and was there last Sunday, hence, no services at his church here.

L. P. Sands, of Ottawa, Kansas, has entered with us and is connected with the J. P. Miller Drug Store. He came in last Sunday night.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will conduct a Market and Bazaar at the store of Wofford & White, Saturday, April 6th.

Miss Mianette Sandusky happened to the misfortune of having her arm badly sprained while playing with girl friends Wednesday afternoon.

Bon. R. A. Prentiss is in Santa Fe this week as a witness in some U. S. Land cases, taking with him some of the records as evidence.

J. W. Madevon, cashier of the Vaughn Savings and Trust Bank & Ill and P. S. Griggs of the First National Bank here is there in his stead.

Hostetter, the tailor, has moved to El Paso, where he goes into the tailoring business. He will likely open a tailoring establishment there, too.

Miss Minnie Griffin will leave soon for a tour to Lockhart, Texas, where her mother was recently called as a result of the death of a brother.

L. G. Pearson says we will have a Democratic president sure. M. B. Peayton applauded loudly, but they say so many funny things, you know.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Anderson, on Monday, April 1st, a bouncing baby girl. Mother and babe doing well and improveing every day.

Due to me Maine Sherly, the next Monday night at the Evans' Opera House. It is often we get to witness a show like this. Be on hand promptly and get your seat reserved.

Last week we stated that Miss Hodge was in the contest for the El Paso Herald, when it should have been the Times. This is made to avoid error, as it is the Times, not the Herald she is with.

Elmer Edwards is with the First National Bank this week, filling the vacancy of C. S. T. Jagger, who is at Yankton in the break at that point as cashier temporarily.

Sister Aldridge and Representative Campbell, who have been in Santa Fe, for sometime are home for a few days and their many friends are glad to see them.

We acknowledge receipt of a copy of the Governor's Report for the year ending June 30, 1941. It is a very creditable showing, well gotten up in pamphlet form and complete in every particular.

While going home Friday afternoon on his motorcycle Bert Littleton ran over a dog and was thrown from the machine resulting in a badly sprained ankle which necessitates the use of crutches. The dog was killed.

The Evans Opera House had a fine of music concert Wednesday night, with conductor "Auld Lang Syne" to the delight of the audience. The film exhibited were correspondingly of song nature and the show was a great success.

Hon. Leroy O. Moore, former chief of the field division of the General Land Office, has opened an office at Santa Fe for the practice of law. His income is better posted on land law than before and we predict for him a great future.

The Tucumcari Auto Co. has removed to more commodious quarters in the building formerly known as the Rucker Store. They are better prepared now than ever before to care for the business in their line. Call and see their excellent equipment.

W. A. Jackson left Tuesday night for Dolores, Colo., where he is interested in some good oil projects and has associated with him a few of Tucumcari's best known citizens. Mr. Jackson is also in touch with some good oil properties in Utah, and will visit them before returning home.

A farmer who was the father of twelve children had rocked each of them in the same cradle with the same great tree. He was rocking the newest at said one evening when his wife remarked, William, that cradle is nearly worn out. I'm afraid it will fall to pieces. It's most used up," replied her husband; then, handing her a ten dollar bill he remarked: "The next time you go to town get a new one, a good one, one that will last."

MENINGITIS AT DALHART

Dalhart is having quite a scare over meningitis. Five cases have made their appearance, one proving fatal. The victim of this dreaded disease was a boy by the name of Feltion.

CURTIS—RUCKER

Edgar Rucker was united in marriage to Miss Letitia Curtis, Friday, March 29th, Judge Cutlip officiating. They will reside at Murdoch. Congratulations to the happy couple.

RAMIREZ—MESQUEDA

Judge Cutlip performed the marriage ceremony of Luis Ramirez and Matilda Mesqueda, April 2, uniting this couple for life. May their journey through life be a pleasant and happy one.

MARTINEZ—BETEON

Frank Martinez was married to Rev. Beteon at the Court House by Judge Cutlip on April 2nd. They will continue to reside in Tucumcari and are receiving congratulations from their many friends.

AMARILLO IS CHOSEN

The concluding session of the Panhandle and Southwestern Stockmen's Association was held at El Paso Thursday. Amarillo, Texas, was chosen for next convention, and W. B. Shugart president. A resolution was adopted protesting against the recent advance in selling prices by the commission firms of St. Louis.

Just a Word About Our Refrigerators

If you have never used an "Alaska" ask your neighbors about them. They all know that this makes saves about 1-3 of your ice bill, and at the same time, we sell them at prices no higher than you would pay for the cheaper kind.

Come in and see them. All have round corners.

Prices $7.50 to $35.00

The American Furniture Co. Liquid Veneer for the Blues

REGULAR SERVICES AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Usual services at the Christian church next Sunday. A. H. Marion will preach both morning and evening.

WILLINGHAM—SIMS

D. L. Sims and Miss Lettie Willingham, of Tucumcari, were united in marriage by Judge Cutlip at the Court House on April 4, 1942. May their journey through life be constantly strewn with roses.

COMING BACK TO NEW MEXICO

Eight families who formerly lived in the country of Montoya, returned last week to their farms. J. N. Logan gave a dinner in their honor last Sunday celebrating their return. Others are also coming back soon as prospects for the best crop yet, is very on tap.

ESPE MADE FIELD

Division Chief Santa Fe, N. M., March 26. The late N. Espe yesterday was commissioned chief of the field division for New Mexico of the general land office succeeding Leroy O. Moore, appointed assistant United States district attorney.

SUICIDE AT SPRINGER

Mrs. Lewis B. Speers, killed herself in a bathroom of the Spencer hotel, after having been arrested for not settling her board bill. She shot herself in the left breast and lived 12 hours. She was well connected, but simply without funds. She leaves a child 3 years old.

ARMY OFFICER HERE

Capt. H. B. Nelson, of the 24th Inf. U. S. A., located at Denver, was here to inspect our local organization, Co. 1, New Mexico National Guards. His report was very pleasing and the home boys took great pains to see he was well entertained while here. He left Sunday night for Clovis, on his tour of inspection.

THEY ALL LIKE TUCUMCARI

A private car, containing Mr. Launder and party of New York City, who have been visiting in Hot Springs, Ark., for sometime, passed through here Tuesday morning on their way to Bisbee, Ariz. Mr. Chas. H. Roemer, Jr., T. P. A., of the Rock Island Lines at Little Rock, Ark., accompanied the party. Mr. Roemer called on the News and we enjoyed a very pleasant chat. He was well impressed with Tucumcari.

PASSES AWAY

Frank Campbell, aged 28, died Wednesday afternoon of Tuberculosis. He was from Virginia and had been here six weeks. He leaves a wife, three sisters in Oklahoma, and one sister in Kansas.

The funeral service will be held at Koch Undertaking Parlor Sunday afternoon, when his relative will be able to attend.

He was a member of the Woodmen Lodge. Rev. Crawford will conduct the funeral service. The News extends sympathy to the bereaved.

WANTED—To buy a one or two room frame house that can be moved.